Happy Spring Everyone!
Here’s to a peaceful, productive, and enjoyable start to season!

Tick Tips
As things warm up and we start venturing out into the grasses and woods around the Farm again, make sure you’re prepared with tips to keep safe from ticks.

Here’s some useful info from Mass Audubon
And check out Winchester Library’s free talk about deer ticks on April 4th.

Revamping our Volunteer Program
As most of you know, Wright-Locke Farm has a robust and engaged volunteer community (you may be part of it!). Our volunteers are crucial to our operations and are an important piece of our mission.

This year, we are enhancing the systems we use to communicate with, engage, and organize our amazing volunteers. These systems will also allow us to track valuable volunteer hours, which will not only be useful for individuals who need to report hours, but will be useful for the Farm to track real volunteer impact and engagement for future grants and donors.

We plan to start rolling out this system soon, so stay tuned for more info in the next coming weeks!

Reuse! Have any of these items to give the Farm?

Farm Stand Hours
We’ve still got a little ways to go until our Farm Stand opens up as part of our Spring Fling
Weekend in May.
So, hold tight!

For now, pop by the Farm Stand Wednesdays and Saturdays starting at 9AM to grab some of our farm fresh eggs.

We use an honor box system in the winter, so bring cash or check. Half-dozen = $3

We try to keep the farm stand open until supplies run out for the day or until it gets dark.

Looking Forward to Sustainability

A new year - a new focus. In our latest blog post, Executive Director, Archie McIntyre talks about some of the exciting and very important measures we are taking to become more sustainable here at the Farm.

Support the All Seasons Barn

We are currently raising money to build a year-round facility at the Farm called the All Seasons Barn. Building this multi-purpose barn is a crucial step in ensuring the future of Wright-Locke Farm. The All Seasons Barn will allow us to operate all year-long and will expand and enhance our popular programming.

1. If you have any wind chimes you'd like to find a new home for, we are hoping to help orient our vision-challenged visitors by strategically placing wind chimes in several areas. You can leave wind chimes on the farmhouse front porch at anytime and we will find them there. They should be functional, and can be any size.

2. Have some old lidded kitty litter boxes to move along? The farm is looking to use kitty litter pails as compost containers. Have some to donate? Contact Adrienne at farmer@wlfarm.org

3. Do you have an overabundance of plastic newspaper bags? Do you know that they make great doggy clean up bags? Drop some off with us and we'll make sure they get used by the right crowd. Woof!

CSA Share Update

There are still shares available for...

1. Tuesday Flower Share: 12 weeks of on-farm pickups of seasonal bouquets consisting of approximately 20 stems; pickups are on Tuesdays, July 16th - October 1st from 3-7pm. $180 per share

2. Farm Stand & Market CSA Share (Carrot Card): Want to support the farm, but you've got some picky eaters in your household? Our Carrot Card might be a good option for you. This is a flexible, convenient option that allows you to shop for what you need, when you want it, but still seasonally! Instead of getting a box every week, you can shop at either of our Farmers Markets or at our Farm Stand. It's good for anything at our Farm Stand except alcohol. The card is only good for this calendar year and costs $340 or the equivalent of an "Alternate Share".

Please check out our CSA page for more details and to register for a share.

If you want the classic "box CSA share" experience, check out our friends at LexFarm and Picadilly Farm, they have local pick ups, too.
