Raspberry Season is approaching - we need your help!

"The Great Raspberry Weed-Out of 2019!"
We’re trying to get the berry bushes ready for U-Pick season. Join us this Saturday from 10am - 12pm for a big community effort to clear out the weeds and set the berries up for success. Grab your hat, water, work gloves, and a friend and come enjoy some satisfying work at the Farm. Learn more and sign up here

U-Pick Guru Sign-Ups
We are also looking for “U-pick Gurus” to help welcome pickers to our fields for the months of September and October. We’ll be conducting training sessions for the weeks leading up to our opening day in September. If interested in becoming a guru (or returning as a guru), please check out the volunteer description here and e-mail Kim Kneeland at kkneeland@wlfarm.org to find out how to sign-up for a training session.

Family Farm Night
- FINAL Concert of the Season
Join us this Thursday for the last Family Farm Night of the season. We’ll be rocking out with local band, Hank Wonder!
You bring the picnic and your favorite non-alcoholic drinks. The FULLer Cup will be taking orders for picnic dinners, delivered to the Farm. Order your dinner here. We’ll have a cash bar for the adults, and popsicles, popcorn, and other goodies for sale in our farm stand. Bring a blanket or some lawn chairs and settle back to enjoy the show!
Gates open at 5:30, music starts at 6pm. See you there!

Speaker Series
Making Room for the River:
Climate Resilience in the Mystic River Watershed
August 21st, 7:30PM
Join us in the beautiful 1827 Barn for the 4th session of our free monthly speaker series. This month, Julie Wormser, Deputy Director of the Mystic River Watershed Association, will explain the challenges and solutions being put forth regarding climate resilience in the Mystic River Watershed.

This watershed is the most densely populated and urbanized watershed in New England. With nearly fifty percent of the watershed developed and paved, heavier rain events mean
All Seasons Barn Updates

We’ve been working diligently on our plans for the All Seasons Barn with our architects, builders, the Town, and all key parties that will help inform a well designed building.

Here are our most up-to-date plans for the All Seasons Barn.

Check out the plans!

Farm Stand Highlight:
Source Bakery

We’re excited to be partnering with Source Bakery for delicious sweet and savory goodies - the perfect snack for your visit to the Farm.

“Source Bakery was opened in early 2019 by Julie White. We are a small, female-owned & operated business that believes in the power of community. It is our goal to work with local farmers & vendors whenever possible. We believe that this not only enhances our baked goods, but that when we support the community around us, we can all grow stronger together! Some of the vendors we work with include Four Star Farms, Wright-Locke Farm & Meadowbrook Farms, to name a few!”

Calling all Farm-Friend Bike Riders!

Join Wright-Locke Farm and Slow Food Boston on Sunday September 8th for a Farm-to-Farm bike ride & farm supper!

We’ll be exploring local farms in Winchester, Lexington, Lincoln, and Concord. Meet the farmers, tour the farms, and celebrate with a meal of locally sourced foods.

There will be a choice of 2 rides (20 miles or 40 miles) plus an optional farm supper at Wright-Locke Farm. Tickets for each event are $60 -- signup for a ride and the supper and get a free drink!

Learn more and buy your tickets today!
Rain date: Sunday, September 22nd.

Fall Youth Registration Open!

Registration is now open for our Fall Youth Programs! We offer options for Toddlers with caregivers, Preschoolers, and After-School Programs for K - 2nd graders and 3rd - 5th graders!

Event Internship at WLF

You may have gotten to meet Sam Parker this season. She interned with the Farm to help us with events management. It was such a pleasure to have her on the team this year. She just finished up her 10 weeks with us and wrote a bit about her experience here on the Farm.

Luckily, we don't have to say goodbye just yet as Sam will be helping out in the Farm Stand for the remainder of the Summer!

Volunteer in the Flower Fields

Flower volunteers: drop-in hours are Wednesdays 10-12. Join us for some ‘zen weeding’ in our beautiful flower fields!

Sign-Up Here.

Flower CSA Shares

We are still offering Summer Flower Shares while the field is full of blooms! $45 for three weeks, pickup is on Wednesdays 8/14, 8/21, 8/28.

Email our Farmer at farmer@wlfarm.org to inquire about signing-up.

Farm Suppers in the 1827 Barn

As we head into August, our fields are starting to burst with the delicious notes of Summer - which means it’s the perfect time to celebrate the bounty with our Farm-to-Table Supper series. Join us for a casual weekday supper at the Farm in the beautiful 1827 Barn while looking out on the farm fields.
It's tomato season at the farm! Come get them while they're in peak deliciousness!

Our Popcorn, Pumpkin, and Sunflower patch next to the parking lot is going crazy!

Support your Farm

Here's a nice aerial shot of the Farm in Summer.

Don't forget, you can also support Wright-Locke when you shop online with Amazon Smile - they'll donate 0.5% of your purchase to the Farm. Just make sure to access Amazon through https://smile.amazon.com/ and designate "Wright-Locke Farm Conservancy LLC" as your nonprofit pick to make your purchases count towards proceeds for the farm.
